The Tennis Camps @ Wake Forest

The Tennis Camps @ Wake Forest University offer tennis players of ALL ABILITIES, ages 6-18 (rising 1st graders through high school graduates), the opportunity to work on their games under the tutelage of Coaches Tamer Hegazy (Lead Instructor for tennis camps at Wake Forest since 2001), Andy Roland (Assistant Women's Tennis Coach), Daneika Borthwick (Assistant Women's Tennis Coach and Jeff Wyshner (Head Women's Tennis Coach). Camp utilizes the world class tennis complex that is home to both the ATP Tour's Winston Salem Open and the Wake Forest men's and women's tennis programs. The camp program emphasizes a game-oriented, fun learning environment while giving the technical instruction and repetition required for tennis improvement in combination with both singles and doubles match-play.

AIR CONDITIONED COURTS

One of the biggest advantages of the Wake Forest Tennis Camps is the extensive use of 8 indoor, air-conditioned courts. Players rotate indoors and out to stay fresh, enthusiastic and capable of learning throughout the week.
